Lumbini Buddhist University

School of Development Studies and Applied Sciences

Devdaha, Rupandehi, Nepal

Date: Sept. 1, 2026

Admission Open – Fall Semester 2026

The School of Development Studies and Applied Sciences (SDSAS), Lumbini Buddhist University, invites applications from eligible candidates for admission to the following programs:

Bachelor's Program:

- One Year Bachelor of Arts in Buddhism

Master's programs

- Master of Arts in Translation and Interpreting (MATI)
- Master of Arts in Buddhism and Nepal Studies (MABNS)
- Master in Chinese Buddhist Philosophy (MCBP)

Applicants are required to complete the online application form at: apply.lbu.edu.np

Required Documents

For Nepali Applicants

- Recent passport-size photograph
- Copy of Citizenship Certificate
- Copies of all academic transcripts and certificates from SLC/SEE through Bachelor's level (or equivalent)

For International Applicants

- Recent passport-size photograph
- Copy of a valid passport
- Biodata/CV
- Copies of academic transcripts and certificates up to Bachelor's level (or equivalent)

Minimum Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in any discipline from a recognized university or institution, or an equivalent qualification.

Application Fee

NPR 1,000/- (One Thousand Nepali Rupees only)

Important Dates

- Registration Opens: September 1, 2026
- First Phase Entrance Examination: September 4, 2026
- Second Phase Entrance Examination: September 11, 2026

For additional information, please contact the School Administration Office during working hours:
Tel: 071-577427
Email: sdsas@lbu.edu.np

Director
School of Development Studies and Applied Sciences
Lumbini Buddhist University