Guidelines for Authors

Myagdi Guru: A Multidisciplinary and Multilingual Journal accepts research articles of interest to the researchers, scholars and academicians in the field of humanities and social sciences, management and education. The manuscripts with quality and originality as well as the breadth of interest will be given priority for publication. The manuscripts for the journal must be of high quality, must be research-based and must fall within the scope of the journal. While preparing the manuscripts for submission, the authors must follow the following guidelines:

1. The manuscripts written in both English and Nepali will be considered for publication in the journal.
2. The manuscripts submitted to the journal must be the original work of the author(s) list, and not previously published in part or full.
3. The journal will accept the manuscripts in electronic format only and from a single designated corresponding author who will be responsible for all subsequent communication with the editors. All manuscripts should be a single Microsoft Word file, with figures (graphics) and tables embedded within them.
4. A manuscript should not exceed 7000 words, but should be minimum of 3000 words, which should be prepared in single line space A4 size paper and Times New Roman 12-point font size (for English) and Preeti 15-point font size (for Nepali). The text or paragraphs should be left justified only.
5. The manuscripts should be consistent in style throughout, especially if different authors have contributed sections. All manuscripts are expected to contain scholarly citations, including layout formats of APA style (the latest version).
6. The following should be included in the manuscripts, depending on the nature of subjects, but they should be in a clear, consistent style that is easy to read:
   - Title of the manuscript
   - Author(s)' information (name, position, affiliation, address, email address)
   - Abstract (not more than 200 words)
   - Keywords (at least four key words or key phrases)
   - Main headings (introduction, body [mainly methods, results and discussion, but textual analysis may have different headings] and conclusion; implications or recommendations are optional)
   - Author contributions (if a manuscript is co-authored)
   - Acknowledgements
   - References
7. The concerned authors should take all ethical responsibility for submitted and published manuscripts; if submitted manuscripts are found plagiarized they will directly be rejected without review. The authors should also agree on the terms and conditions of the copyright authorization of the manuscripts to the journal before the manuscripts are published in print or online.
8. There is no any publication charge for the authors submitting their manuscripts.
9. All manuscripts should be sent to myagdiguru@myagdicampus.edu.np as an email attachment.
