Notice

The International Relations Center of Pokhara University kindly requests all faculty members who have participated in international conferences, seminars, or academic programs abroad, as well as international-level events organized in Nepal during the recent period of 2025/26, to submit their details through the designated Google Form.

The information collected will be utilized for the preparation of the IRC Newsletter, for maintaining official records, and for publishing highlights on the International Relations Center's social media page. Faculty members are encouraged to provide accurate details along with supporting attachments such as photographs or certificates.

The Google Form link is attached with this notice. Your cooperation in completing the form at the earliest will be highly appreciated.
